TO THE OLD AND YOUNG.

HO! YE RED HEADS AND GREY!

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY.

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

Colors the Hair, and will not the Skin

THIS Dye is in form of a powder, which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a second or third night to a bright jet black Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the powder, if applied to the skin, will not color it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, DR. COMSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public

From the Whig Standard.

Whig Lyrics.

AIR—"The Fine Old English Gentleman"

They've sung of English gentlemen,
Who lived in olden times,
When titles loud, and coats of arms,
Hid multitudes of crimes
My theme shall be a gentleman—
The Farmer of the West—
A man of intellect and soul,
With a kind heart in his breast
The fine Kentucky gentleman—
The noblest of the land!

The minstrels of long by-gone days,
Whene'er they tuned their lyres,
Were sure to sing of warlike deeds,
Young heroes and their sires:
I sing in praise of him who stood
Erect in Senate hall—
Amid the proudest of the land,
The proudest of them all!
The fine Kentucky, &c.

He spoke! and forth came words of fire!
His country, right or wrong,
Was just as much his idol made
As love the poet's song!
His giant intellect subdued
The malice of his foes;
And when they strove to drag him down,
The higher still he rose!
The fine Kentucky, &c.

The North, the South, the East, the West,
This gentlemen beheld;
While beauty cheered him with her smiles,
The breast of manhood swell'd.
His honesty and principles
Had nobly stood the test;
And every patriot's bosom glow'd
For the good man of the West!
The fine Kentucky, &c.

The frost of age fell on his brow,
And care bent down his form;
But still his mighty voice was raised
Amid the angry storm
The master spirits quail'd when he
Stood up his country's friend;
For such a monarch oak as he
To tempests would not bend!
The fine Kentucky, &c

And now, retired from noise and strife,
He calmly tills the soil,
And, by his peaceful fireside,
Bids sweet contentment smile;
But there's a murmur in the land,
A glow in every breast—
The People will their highest gift
To the Farmer of the West!
The fine Kentucky, &c. CHIPS.

MR. STANDARD: I think it a duty I owe a native composer and myself to state, that the foregoing lines have been set to original music, and are now in the course of publication. They are inscribed to HENRY CLAY, and the song will be published in a manner creditable to American artists. Yours, CHIPS.

Emanuel Swedenborg.

The last Southern Quarterly (says the Charleston Rambler) contains a review of the Life and Writings of Emanuel Swedenborg, a remarkable Philosopher and Theologian of the 17th century. This article treats of principles until lately new to the great majority of Southern readers. Tardy, however, as the progress of opinions advanced by the Swedish Philosopher have been in this country, in comparison with their appreciation in Europe by many of the most profound thinkers of the age, it is manifest from recent indications throughout the length and breadth of our land that the startling developments made by Emanuel Swedenborg, in his various works on Theology, are now commanding an attention and inquiry, which, if they prove his principles to be true, will impart, ere long, a fresh impulse to social progress, infuse a new life into the body theological, consoling to every Philanthropic and Christian heart, and must ultimately effect a revolution in many existing religious systems.

There is no doubt great beauty and sublimity in the spirit and general tone of thinking of Swedenborg; it has always been a marvel to us, therefore, (who, from peculiar circumstances, have been led to read, and to hear much said on the subject,) why so much ridicule has always been leveled against his compositions, and even against those persons more bold than their neighbors, who, from a right motive, honestly seeking for truth, would venture to read, should do so in fear and trembling, lest they too should expose themselves to public derision Marvellous as this may appear, in this inquiring age, it is, nevertheless, true.

These topics having been taken up severally, and discussed at length in the Review before us, we need not, therefore, dwell upon them. The Reviewer then goes on to say, that notwithstanding all these circumstances that have retarded the rise and progress of the Church of Swedenborg, the progress of his doctrines, and the present respectable, and even imposing position of the denomination in America, are little less than miraculous, brought about, too, by no presumption or angry zeal, but by all the modesty and humility that characterized the earthly career of its great founder

The Reviewer furnishes its readers with the life, doctrines, and also a list of the various works published by Swedenborg—the subjects of which they treat, and in many instances, the opinions entertained by the literati of the times in which they were written, from which we gather that, by common consent, Swedenborg was regarded as the most learned man in his country, gifted with so happy a genius, and so fitted for every science, as to create the general impression that he was inspired

The able Reviewer has really gone into this interesting subject con amore, and has done ample justice to it We have no doubt, whatever effect may be produced upon the understandings of his readers, that the present Review will induce additional inquiry, and lead many a serious and influential scholar to investigate for himself the theological system of Swedenborg—a system which he, the accomplished Reviewer, has presented in very captivating colors—in a form beautiful and impressive He has certainly shown it to be a system capable of scriptual defence, and not a wild speculative theory, to be treated with neglect and ridicule

In conclusion, we extract the following passages as a fair specimen of the happy style in which the Reviewer clothes his language and sentiments He, in speaking of the timidity with which many persons approach the perusal of the works of Swedenborg, says.

"Still, there has been a singular timidity evinced, even by bold thinkers, in respect to the very perusal of his works They have been read by stealth, away from company—free from the curiosity of the prying eye. Persons have been afraid, as if they were engaged in some necromantic orgies, to breathe a word to their friends of their peculiar and forbidden occupation. They have come to their teacher, as Nicodemus came to the Saviour, in the night time, and have listened to his instructions with equal incredulaity and equal wonder The ridicule leveled at the celebrated Swede by Dr. Southey, more than a quarter of a century ago, in his 'Espriella's Letters,' has led many to turn with indifference and contempt from his works—works full of light and consolation—lest they, too, if detected in their perusal, should come in for a share of the sarcasm of some lively and witty satirist. The style in which these compositions are clothed—in some degree eccentric and unique—but deriving its singularity rather from the elevated character of the subjects treated of, than from any want of tact and skill in the writer, has deterred others who have commenced the examination of them, from proceeding much beyond the threshhold—Prescriptive authority—educational biases—pride of opinion imbibed in other schools—long entertained, and mistaken for truth—these have stood in the way of others. Then the pretentions of Swedenborg, scarcely less lofty than those of a prophet, though preferred with a modesty and even a humility, which, taken in connection with the solemn and startling developments he has made, and the unblemished purity of his life and manners, forbid the slightest suspicion of imposture—these pretensions, we say, have led others to affirm, that his mind may have been shattered and warped from its healthful tone—a charge, we know, once preferred against a greater than Swedenborg. But to those who are inspired with a larger share of courage—who can recognize intellectual superiority, in some cases, where there is more than a slight divergence from old and beaten paths—who have been willing to say to worldly considerations, "Get ye behind me," and to authority, "Thou art not my master in matters of this nature;"—to those who have been animated more by a love of truth, than alarmed by fears of reproach and contumely;—to those, who, like the wisest of sages, could send up, from the inmost depths of their being, the earnest entreaty, "Give me understanding"—to such—and there are not a few of them—the works of the author under consideration have proved a rare treasure."

Speech of the Late Mr. Ogle.

Most of our readers will remember the speech made by Mr. Ogle in the House of Representatives, previous to the last presidential election; in which the extravagance and aristocratic conduct of Mr Van Buren were so roughly handled. Mr Ogle died recently in Pennsylvania, and the locofoco papers have got up a sort of dying speech and confession, purporting to emanate from the deceased, during his last illness, and in which they represent Mr Ogle as exhibiting great remorse for permitting his name to be used in connexion with the speech, which he is represented as stating he never delivered. We cannot positively aver that Mr. Ogle did deliver the speech, for we did not hear him, but if he did not deliver it, he endorsed it, for we received one under his own frank from the City of Washington, D. C. It strikes us as somewhat singular, that so great a fraud as publishing a speech as having been delivered in the House of Representatives, that was not so delivered, should have been so long undiscovered, more particularly as the speech made no inconsiderable noise at the time It looks very much like a fraud to publish such a statement at this time, and when the whole affair is viewed in connection with the fact, that all of Mr Van Buren's friends who were members of Congress at the time, would have gladly united in exposing the imposition in relation to the speech having been delivered in the House, we cannot but conclude it is a 'weak invention of the enemy,' a sort of 'last card,' which cannot fail to cover its inventors with shame, and cause them to blush if such beings can blush, for thus disturbing the ashes of the dead Cannot locofocoism get up something else, than the continual repetition of their outcry in relation to the injustice of the censures passed upon Mr Van Buren at the last election?—They must be hard run if they can devise nothing else in his favor—Brooklyn News.

"Take the other Hand."

A lady, walking out for exercise, came to a rope-walk, and being fond of the smell of tar, she entered At one end of the building she saw a little boy turning a very large wheel: she thought it was too laborious work for such a child, and as she came near him she thus addressed him

"Who sent you to this place, my lad?"
"Nobody;—I come of myself"
"Does your father know you are here?"
"I have no father."
"Are you paid for your labor?"
"Yes, ma'am—I get ninepence a day"
"What do you do with your money?"
"I give it all to my mother."
"Do you like this work?"
"Well enough; but if I did not, I should do it, that I might get money for my mother."
"How long do you work in the day?"
"From nine until twelve in the morning, and from two until five in the afternoon"
"How old are you?"
"Almost nine"
"Are you never tired of turning this great wheel?"
"Yes, sometimes"
"And what do you do then?"
"I take the other hand"

The lady gave the lad a piece of money, and went home strengthened in her devotion to duty, and instructed in true practical christian philosophy, by the words and example of a little child. The next time that duty seems too hard for me, (she said to herself,) I will think of this little boy, and not complain, but "take the other hand."—[The Child's Friend

DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

JOHN S. SAYWARD, Editor.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1843.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HENRY CLAY,

OF KENTUCKY.

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE.

Meeting of Congress.

Congress meets this day at Washington. The assembling of a new Congress is a matter of interest and particularly this Congress, so far as the House is concerned, since we have a Senate Whig, a House loco, and the President all by himself There will be much management during the session, to pave the way for the Presidential election next year Tyler has proved a traitor to the whigs, and he thinks he can cheat the locos into nominating him for the Presidency, and for this purpose he has already given them much and is ready to bestow more. The leaders prefer cheating him to being cheated, and this fact Tyler will by and by see to his deep mortification.

There have been many candidates for the honor of the Speakership at Washington, on the part of the majority, but we must wait a while to know who succeeds. Mr Rhett, of South Carolina, is the candidate of Mr. Calhoun, and he will be the leader of the Calhoun section of the party in the House. Jones and Dromgoole, of Virginia, with several others, are candidates among the Van Buren portion of the House.—The New York Express correspondent states that John Quincy Adams will probably be the whig candidate.

The session will be one of interest and as it happens, with a whig Senate, will not be one of much mischief. The House can only show its teeth without the power of biting.

We expect the message on Saturday next, and shall give a daily summary of affairs as they transpire. The importance of political affairs for a year to come require every man to look into the matter, and become familiar with the issues involved in the approaching contest, that he may be enabled to express his honest and enlightened judgment by his vote.

☞ We learn from the Mercantile Journal that on Thursday evening in Boston Harbor a fire was discovered on board the schooner Tamerlain, Sprowl, of and from Frankfort, with a cargo of lumber and sugar-box stuff, by the watch of the revenue Cutter Hamilton. Capt. Sturgis, with that promptitude which he has ever displayed in times of danger, immediately put off to the burning vessel with a crew of eight men, with buckets, and extinguished the fire before any further assistance was rendered. When Capt. Sturgis first reached the vessel, though she was all in flames forward, he found the crew just coming out of the cabin, totally ignorant of the disaster which threatened them; and before the fire was extinguished, the galley, foresail, boom, &c. were destroyed.

News from the Hon. Mr. Cushing.

We learn from the New York Express that the Hon. C. Cushing, Ambassador to China writes to a friend in that city from Suez, that he had a speedy and most interesting journey thro' Egypt, and was on the 20th September, waiting a steamer from Bombay. It will be recollected, says the Express, that the Secretary of Legation, F. Webster, Esq sailed from Boston for China, in the Antelope, in July. Other members of the mission sailed some time previous in the Brandywine from Norfolk.

☞ Mr. Calhoun is reported in the Columbia (S. C.) Chronicle to have himself said that he "could not suffer his name to go before the National Convention, and would not even receive a nomination from it, if any of the States were represented in it upon the principles adopted by the Syracuse Convention in New York." The genuine, unterified Calnoun papers will of course take out from their nomination head the line stating their willingness to abide by the National Convention. We are glad to know that Van Buren is to be the man.

☞ The Administration has found another mare's nest. The Philadelphia Sentinel contains a document purporting to be signed by nearly three thousand persons, addressed to President Tyler, lauding his administration, and calling him a "democrat of the Jefferson school." This document is signed by all the government office holders; but of the other names, not an eighth part of them are to be found in the Philadelphia Directory!; If this is not doing up fancy work by wholesale, we know not what is.

☞ It was stated in the papers received by the last steamer that the brig Aristocrat, from Montreal, had been driven ashore on the English coast, and that two cabin passengers had lost their lives in the attempt to get ashore in the ship's boat. We learn from the Montreal papers that the unfortunate individuals were Mr. Sparks and his lady, of Canada West. Mrs. Sparks was a sister of the Rev. Mr. Leach of St George's Church, Montreal.

☞ We learn from the New York Journal of Commerce that Mr. Lott, Secretary of the Ætna Insurance Company, of that city, appears to be a defaulter to the amount of over twenty thousand dollars, probably thirty thousand, covered up for some years by false entries.

☞ Hill's N H. Patriot says, that a gentleman of Concord, N. H., who last week passed through the Franconia Notch, says that the snow in that region lay upon the ground to the depth of from four to six feet.

Doings in Canada.

The strong feeling that has long existed in Canada, on account of the policy of putting a Canadian Frenchman against an Englishman, in the Cabinet Council, has broke out in quite an unexpected quarter—as the leaders of the French interest in the executive council and in the lower house have resigned their offices, reserving to a future day their reasons for so doing. Public opinion seemed to favor the retiring members.

Texas.

Galveston papers up to the 13th ult. have been received at New Orleans.

The British Government, it is stated, has presented claims of its subjects to land in Texas amounting to from ten to twenty millions of acres! They are principally Empresario grants. These demands will probably cover nearly all the public domain west of the Colorado river; and the Government of Texas has been notified by Capt. Elliott, in accordance with the instruction he has received, that unless the facts set forth by those claimants are refuted, or a satisfactory explanation given, Her Majesty's Government would feel fully authorized to take the necessary steps to enforce the just claims of her liege subjects.

From the Sandwich Islands.

By an arrival at New Bedford we have Sandwich Island papers to July 31st, inclusive The following protest, which was issued by Commodore Kearney, at Honolulu on the 11th of the same month (the Islands were restored to the native government on the 31,) has not, we believe been before published in this country,—although letters as late as August. 4th were received by a previous arrival. Commodore K. will be gratified to find his course fully sustained by the government and people of this country.

N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

To his Maj. Kamehameha III., King of the Sandwich Islands.

In the name and on behalf of the people of the United States of America and their government, which the undersigned has the honor to represent, and in order to explain clearly for the information of all concerned; is issued,

A PROTEST.

Whereas a provisional cession of the Hawaiian or Sandwich Islands was made by His Majesty Kamehameha III, King, and Kekauluohi Premier thereof, unto the Honorable George Paulet, Commanding Her Britannic Majesty's ship Carystort' (to wit) on the twenty-fifth day of February, eighteen hundred and forty three—and whereas, the United States' interests and those of their citizens resident in the aforesaid Hawaiian Islands are deeply involved in a seizure, of His Majesty's Government under the circumstances, as well as to the act of the aforesaid King and Premier acceding thereto under protest or otherwise, to effect the interests above cited:

Now therefore be it known, that I solemnly Protest against every act and measure in the premises; and do Declare that from and after the date of said cession until the termination of the pending negotiation between His Majesty's I hold His Majesty Kamehameha III. and Captain Lord George Paulet answerable for any and every act, by which a citizen of the United States, resident as aforesaid, shall be restrained in his just and undisputed rights and privileges, or who may suffer inconvenience or losses, or be forced to submit to any additional charges on imports or other revenue matters, or exactions in regard to the administration of any municipal laws whatever, enacted by the "Commission" consisting of His Majesty King Kamehameha III., or his Deputy of the aforesaid Islands, and the Right Hon. Lord George Paulet Duncan Forbes Mackay, Esq. and Lieut, R. N

Given under my hand on board the U. S. Ship Constellation, at anchor off Honolulu, Oahu. this eleventh day of July eighteen hundred and forty three.

Another Breeze.

Latest accounts from Washington state that Mr. Spencer, the Secretary of the Treasury, has had a falling out with Bob Tyler, the President's oldest and most hopeful son. It seems that Master Robert, who is employed by his father to do up the small work of the administration, such as retailing small offices and bestowing government patronage on those whose circumstances are desperate enough to make them consent to wear the Tyler mark, requested the Secretary to change the government account with the Bank of Philadelphia, to the Moyamensing Bank.—This the Secretary refused to do; whereat Master Bob waxed exceeding wroth, and reported the Secretary's contumacy to daddy, adding, by way of parenthesis, "Spencer has insulted me." The President demanded of the Secretary how he dared to insult a son of his. Spencer rejoined that, if a refusal to do a wrong act was an insult, he cared not if he insulted somebody every day of his life. (Pretty well for Spencer.) This was taken as a disclaimer of any intention to insult the royal progeny, and so Master Bob made a virtue of necessity, and cooled off.

☞ A correspondent of the Philadelphia North American, thus describes the pestiferous swarms which hover about the "White House" at Washington:

"The evils of a weak reign, however are notorious; and, foremost of all, that of the accession to power of everything incapable, of every thing futile, and every thing false. As the dwarf instinctively distrusts the giant, so the imbecile ruler shrinks from the strength of capacity, of courage or virtue. Around him he calls only minnons and lacqueys, or those willing to become such. But chiefly in the sunshine of such a court bask those insect things which, yesterday grubs, flutter to day in finery through their idle and epaemeral lives, and to-morrow drop back into the dirt from which they rose. A swarm of this sort has hovered continually about the palace from the first rise of Mr. Tyler's power These form a power about him, a domestic council of such known authority, so intimate in his state secrets, so powerful to direct because ready to flatter him, possessing all the avenues of personal favor, that even the strong, who have purposes to accomplish, for which they are willing to cringe, find themselves forced to court these wretched pickthanks, and either to forego success—perhaps forfeit their justest claims—or stoop to be the temporary associates of this wretched crew

These people, I am sorry to say, are the more especial retainers of the President's youngest son; a personage sent, apparently to thicken by his faults, the confusions of his father's reign, and to be a plague to the little of discretion which was possible under it. What the De-Spencers (if I recollect right) were to the feeble Edward II. or Villiers to King Charles, his vain and preposterous attempt to be something and play a part, is to the policy and respectability of his father Forward, presumptuous, and intermeddling, he has continually thrust himself into the public business, with not a shadow more of fitness than he has of right; and saddles upon the gravest or most delicate affairs of all the departments, his own impertinence, in addition to his father's incompetency."

Members of Congress.

The National Intelligencer, in some remarks upon the labors and duties of the approaching Congress, expresses a belief that an attempt will be made to sanction the proceedings of Georgia, Mississippi, and the other States that have elected members by general ticket, rather than by single districts, as required by the act of Congress. That correct and well judging paper thus remarks:

"The persons sent hither as Representatives, by the States who have thus defined the law, belonging chiefly to the party which is most numerous in the House, it has been presumed that an effort will be made in this case, as was done in the New Jersey case four years ago, to introduce these illegally chosen members into the House by the mere force of numbers. Whether this attempt will be made, and, if made, whether it will be successful, remains to be seen. It can only succeed, of course, by trampling down the barriers of the Constitution, and marching over them into the Representative Hall. It will be the duty of the fast friends of the Constitution to resist to the utmost, by their arguments and their votes, such an assault upon that sacred Charter of Liberty and law. Should their resistance be in vain, it will then become their duty instead of attempting any violent remedy, to enter a Protest so formal and so solemn against this infraction of the law, as to leave no doubt of their determination, on regaining the ascendancy in that body, to take effective measures to prevent the possibility of a recurrence, in all future time, of circumstances such as this, more threatening to our Liberty than any that have ever yet taken place in the Republic."

If our manufacturers are not so protected as to encourage them to extend their operations, and to induce others to engage in the business of manufacturing, these sources of national wealth must cease to add their tribute. If the thousands of men, women and children who are now employed in manufactures, were compelled to seek support in some other avocation, what would result to the country from the change? None at all. The farmer would find the market they furnished for his products destroyed, and finding none elsewhere, his interest would demand that he should raise no more corn, wheat, &c than he would need himself. Turn out those employed in manufactures to seek support in some other way, and they will resort to cultivation of the soil—every one will raise what he needs, and Europe will drain us of what money we have. This will be the result, in the event the tariff should be abolished.

Farmers, which will best promote your interests, free trade, which places the pauper labor of Europe on an equal footing with that which is paid for in the United States, or a tariff, which will afford fair protection to the American manufacturer, and create a home market for your surplus products?

Chinese Military Tactics.

The ridiculous and almost incredible ignorance relative to military operations, manifested by a people so advanced as the Chinese in the useful and ornamental arts, satisfactorily accounts for the facility with which ten thousand Europeans succeeded in dictating the adoption of a liberal policy to an empire of three hundred millions. The following extract from the instruction of the Council of the Empire to the General commanding armies has never before published in this country:

"Take notice of this in particular. You have to deal with a people that wear breeches so tight, that once the soldiers fall they cannot get up by themselves. Your first endeavors must be to throw them down Paint your faces as fantastically as possible, and when you approach the enemy shout out and make the most hideous faces and grimaces possible to frighten them, and make them tumble down.—Once prostrate, they are at your mercy."

Absurd and preposterous as this appears, it will at once explain the exhibition at Canton of "monsters and chemeras dire" that were exhibited on their standards.

THE PILES AND ALL SORES.

HAY'S LINIMENT is known now to thousands, as a most extraordinary remedy for these afflictions. It is impossible to tell in a newspaper, in such a manner, as to obtain full credence, the effects and benefits of this article, so general is the practice of advertisers of extolling articles of no merit. Such personal reference will be given, as to bring conviction to the minds of the most unbelieving. Will sufferers only ask among their friends, if they have not heard or known its effects; and if they do not hear it more warmly praised than any other salve, let them not get it.—All fancy or exageration is positively excluded from the statements, and it is determined to say nothing of its merits, but what could be fully proved by a host of witnesses, in any court of justice. Will you look at the thing and the proofs where it may be had? at G. W. LADD'S, A. P. GUILD'S, and A. YOUNG, Jr. & CO., formerly Holden's. 3twd and w6m nov 91

CLEANLINESS OF THE HEAD AND HAIR.

STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c., should neglect the Head—the Hair—the most essential—the most exposed—and the most beautiful, when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or scurf, with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the BALM OF COLUMBIA. Ladies will you make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly no, if you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects—sweet perfume.

REDUCTION FOURFOLD IN PRICES—OR NOTHING.

AN article that every family must consider indispensable, when they know its power and value and which has heretofore been sold too high to bring it to all classes, has now been reduced fourfold in price, with a view that rich and poor, high and low, and in fact every human being may enjoy its comforts; and all who get it shall have the price returned to them if they are not delighted with its use. We assert, without the possibility of contradiction, that all burns and scalds, every external sore, old or fresh, and all external pains and aches, no matter where, shall be reduced to comfort by it in five minutes—saving life, limb or scar. No burn can be fatal if this is applied, unless the vitals are destroyed by the accident. It is truly magical, to appearance, in its effects. Enquire for "Connel's Magical Pain Extractor," at Comstock & Co's., 21 Cortland street. Price 25 cents, or four times as much for 50 cents, and ten times as much for $1.

COUGHS, COLDS, &c.

COUGHS, Colds, Spitting of Blood, Asthma, and all complaints of the chest, lungs and liver, will be cured by the Extract of Lungwort, when all else fails. This we assert without fear of the least contradiction. Besides, it does not require the false certificate of the panaceas, balsams and candies, to induce invalids to use this great lung restorative. One trial will convince the sceptical, that its virtues are far above price. To be found only, at G. W. LADD'S, corner of Smith's Block, West Market Place.

Dr. D. Jayne's FAMILY MEDICINES.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

THIS invaluable medicine is daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known. All who have used it for Asthma, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Chronic Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Pain and Soreness of the Breas, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the LUNGS and BREAST, can and do attest to its usefulness. BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of CONSUMPTION, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, Bronchitis, are Cough, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hectic Fever, a Spitting up of Phlegm or Matter, and sometimes Blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels, which run throu every part of the Lungs. The Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.

It always cures ASTHMA. Two or three large doses will cure the CROUP, or HIVES of children, in from 15 minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of WHOOPING COUGH, and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with CONSUMPTION, have been restored to perfect health by it.

If this Expectorant be given in the commencement of PLEURISY, INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS, or in acute RHEUMATISM, in doses sufficiently large, so as to cause a little nausea for some time, going to bed and covering up warm, it will produce perspiration, and subdue these affections at once.

PRICE $1,00.

Tonic Vermifuge.

WORMS IN CHILDREN. Of all diseases to which children are exposed, none are so fatal to them as WORMS. Unfortunately, children are seldom free from them, and as they imitate the symptoms of almost every other complaint, they often produce alarming effects without being suspected. They are not only a cause of disease themselves, but by their irritation aggravate all other diseases, wandering from one part of the body to another, winding themselves up into large balls, and obstructing the bowels, and frequently the throat, causing convulsions, and too often death. The desired remedy will be found in Dr. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE, which will very soon destroy the worms, and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return of them. PRICE 50 cents.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM.

This is one of the most efficient, pleasant and safe compositions ever offered to the public, for the cure of the various derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, and the only article worthy of the least confidence for curing CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER COMPLAINT; and in the above and following diseases, it really acts like a charm, viz:

Dysentery, Diarrhea or Looseness, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, Chole, Griping Pain, Sour Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Water-brash, Pain or Sickness of the Stomach, Vomiting, Spitting up of food after eating, and also where it passes through the body unchanged; Want of Appetite, Restlessness and Inability to Sleep, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Hysterics, Cramp, Nervous Tremors and Twitchings, Sea Sickness, Faintings, Melancholy and Lowness of Spirits, Fretting and Crying of Infants, and for all Bowel Affections and Nervous Diseases.

PRICE 50 cents.

Hair Tonic.

NO EXCUSE FOR A BALD HEAD. Since the important discovery of Dr JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC, every one may, if they choose, preserve their hair from falling off, or if already bald, may, with certainty, have their hair restored again by a faithful and persevering application of this valuable HAIR TONIC.

Please to read without prejudice the following communication, which, in addition to hundreds of others equally respectable, should remove the doubts of every reasonable person of the uniform and singular efficacy of JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.

HAMILTON, Feb. 15, 1840.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: I cannot say my hair is restored, but I can say that it appears to be in as rapid a process of restoration as could reasonably be expected. I had not finished the first bottle, before a decided change was manifest over the bald part of the head, to which it was applied. A new growth of fine glossy hair, much like that of an infant, appeared, and has continued to increase, and I have had it cut two or three times. I have recently commenced upon the third bottle, but have been a good deal irregular in the use of the Tonic from the first, and from this cause I apprehend the effect is at present less than it otherwise would have been.

I began the use of the Tonic with little or no faith that it would ever be successful on my head, though I felt entire confidence in your statements of what it had done for others; and I was as much surprised as delighted when I saw the effect. You recollect the appearance of my head when in your office. I assure you the hair has been nearly, if not quite, an inch long at the times I have had it cut, on those parts which were nearly destitute of any when you saw me. It was, however, very fine, though quite thick. I am flushed with sanguine hopes of final success, in the diligent use of your Tonic, which, amidst all the hair humbugs which have been advertised in the papers, I am constrained to believe is what it claims to be, and that it will make the hair grow, and no mistake, at least on some heads.

Jayne's Sanative Pills.

These Pills are an excellent, mild and safe purge at all times, and are exceedingly useful in Dyspepsy and obstructions of the Liver. Persons taking them can eat and drink as usual, without fear of injury; and, what is of infinite advantage, making the use of mercurial preparations, so frequently used in derangements of the stomach and liver, unnecessary.

These Pills may be taken at all times, and are beneficial in nearly all diseases. They have long been a favorite prescription of the proprietor for all obstructions of the Liver, Spleen, Kidneys, Uterus, and all other organs of the body—Inflammatory, Intermittent, Remittent, Bilious, and every other form of Fever—Jaundice and Liver Complaint. For Dyspepsy they are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretions of the stomach, and producing healthy action in that important organ. They are very valuable in diseases of the Skin, and for what is commonly called "impurity of the blood"; also for Female Complaints, Costiveness, &c. &c.—and in fact every disease where an Aperient, Alterntive or Purgative medicine is required.

☞ Four fifths of the numerous and distressing cases of DYSPEPSY POSITIVELY CAN BE CURED by a persevering use of this valuable SANATIVE.

They are expressly prepared to be used as an Aperient, when purging is necessary, while using his Expectorant, and for the removal of obstructions in the Liver, which are often attendant on some of the diseases of the Breast.

Prepared only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia.

THE SICK HEADACHE.

THIS DISEASE is one from which arises more misery to the human family than is generally supposed; not being directly fatal, it is often neglected, or persons resort so much to the use of purgatives and other medicines as to impair their general health, and often induce fatal diseases. The article—Dr. Spohn's HEADACHE REMEDY, now offered seems to have overcome these difficulties. While its effects are most powerful and immediate in curing an attack or keeping it off, it is so perfectly mild and innocent as to be used for infants with the greatest effect and safety. This has now been tested by so many of the highest members of this community as to require no further proof.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO CONSUMPTIVES!

THE Time has come when Consumption may be classed with the curable diseases.

The Subscriber announces the gratifying intelligence that he is constantly receiving from England large supplies of

Bucan's Hungarian Balsam of LIFE!

The ONLY compound known to the Medical Faculty which will effect a speedy and permanent cure of that dreadful malady,

CONSUMPTION!

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE PULMONARY ORGANS.

For the last six years the Hungarian Balsam has been in extensive use in Great Britain, and throughout the Continent of Europe, where it has completely astounded the Medical Faculty by its unparalleled success in the cure of the most of Consumption ever brought under their notice.—In England it has cured thousands upon thousands; of all classes, in cases of the most dangerously Consumptive character; and the English papers are full of extravagant eulogiums upon it, and upon its distinguished authors.

This Balsam has also been introduced into the practice of some of the best Hospitals, Infirmaries' and other Institutions in Great Britain, and has received the public sanction of the most distinguished Chemists and Professional men, as the of Pulmonary Diseases in the whole range of Pharmacy.

A Committee of seven of the most celebrated Physicians of London, who were requested by Dr. Buchan to give thrir unbiased opinions of his Balsam, have, under their own names, unreservedly pronounced it an

UNRIVALED SPECIFIC:

And they unhesitatingly recommend it to be kept in every family of a CONSUMPTIVE TENDENCY. The joint certificate of these Physicians accompanies each bottle of the Balsam.

Dr. Buchan has been elected an honorary member of the prominent Medical Societies of Europe, and his Balsam is now so well established that liberal minded men, in the Medical profession, prescribe it for their patients, as the for Pulmonary complaints and physical debility—and it is universally received as one of the standard medicines of the day.

BEST OF ALL REMEDIES

The great merit of Dr. Buchan's Balsam is this: in all cases of Pulmonary complaints it gives

IMMEDIATE RELIEF.

A single bottle will reveal its astonishing virtues; and open at once the fountain of health and strength to the afflicted.

Price of the Balsam, only $1 per bottle, with full Directions, Dissertation or Consumption; Notices and Certificates of Remarkable Cures, &c.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM, —

NAMELY:

Scrofula, or King's Evil, rheumatism, obstinate cutaneous eruptions, pimples, or pustules on the face, blotches, biles, chronic sore eyes, ring worm or tetter, scald head, enlargement and pain of the bones and joints, stubborn ulcers, syphilitic symptoms, sciatica, or lumbago, and disenses arising from an injudicious use of the mercury, ascites, or dropsy, exposure or imprudence in life. Also, chronic constitutional disorders will be removed by this preparation.

The proprietors submit to the public the following certificate, from a highly respectable source, of a cure made by using their preparation of Sarsaparilla, which cannot but have the effect of placing beyond all doubt the curative powers of the medicine:

NEW YORK, August 3, 1842.

"Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling sense of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly relieved from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving the afflicted, make known to the world the inestimable benefit I have received from the use of your Sarsaparilla. In the year 1832 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the passage first discovered the disease which after proved to be a sore affliction; and truly I can say, 'from the crown of my head to the sole of my foot there was no soundness in me.' From the time first mentioned down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature was capable of bearing. I have been under the care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various specifics, among others a large quantity of Swaim's Panacea, used sulphur baths, &c. As a last resort I was induced to wrap myself in a tar ointment, keep myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also shunning. I was induced to believe my case a hopeless one.

In August last, by the advice of friends, I went to the New York City Hospital, but was there told that my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helpless; the skin thickened and cracked, and blood and matter ran, and life itself became almost a burden. A few weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly recommended, having spent nearly $3,000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time, I found myself better, and now, by using six or eight bottles, costing me less than ten dollars, I am well. Yes, I certify and declare to the world, that after spending near $3,000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffering more than can be told, I was perfectly cured by using your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla; and I now recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Those wishing to know further particulars will find me at my residence, No. 27 Warren street, New York, where I shall be happy to communicate any thing in relation to the above cure.

PAUL BURDOCK."

PATENT MILL WHEELS.

THE Subscriber having for a long time given his attention to the construction and operation of Water Wheels, has finally succeeded in the invention of two kinds of Wheels for which he has received Letters Patent from the Government of the United States.

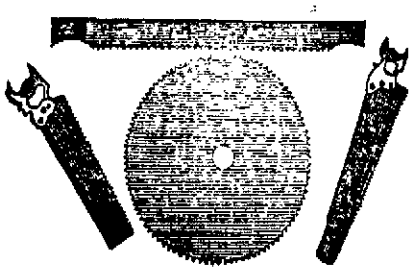

These Wheels are simple in their construction, cheap and durable, are easily put in operation, and are not liable like most other wheels to get out of order, they are not obstructed by back water, when the head is not diminished thereby; and the same power and speed is obtained, with about one half the quantity of water usually applied to wheels now in general use.

A great number of these Wheels are now in operation and give in all cases entire satisfaction; and for further information respecting them the following gentlemen are referred to, all of whom have some of said wheels in operation: Jacob Drummond, James B. Fiske, Amos Davis and Leonard March, Esqrs., Messrs. Fiske & Norcross, Foster & Gilman, S. P. & H. Strickland, W. T. & H. Peirce & Co. Bangor; Hon. J. S. Little, Portland; Hon. John Otis, Hallowell; F. A. Butman, Esquire, Dixmont; Robert Treat Geo. A. Peirce, Esquires, Frankfort; Daniel Dennett, Esq. Milo; Col. Henry Orne, Milton; Messrs. Fiske & Bridge, Milford; Ira Wadleigh, Esq. Oldtown; Capt. R. Fitz, Dedham; John Black and John M. Hale, Esqrs. Ellsworth;—Messrs. A. Campbell & Co. Cherryfield; Daniel Harwood, Esq. Machias; Levi L. Lowell, Calais.

The above wheels are manufactured and for sale at the Iron Foundries of MESSRS. HINCKLEY & EGERY and FRANKLIN MUZZY & Co. in this city, who are furnished with a great variety of patterns, so that Wheels of any particular description, or adapted to any given head of water, can be furnished at short notice. They are also authorized to dispose of the Pateut Right for the same.
